CORONA ALUMNI ARE HOSTS AT REUNION

Old Graduates Welcome Class of 715 Into Their Ranks-Kindergarten Assured for Corona Schools Next Year-Doings of People in and Around the City

[Daily Press Special News Service] CORONA. June 26.-The Alumni as sociation of the Corona high school held its annual banquet and business meeting Wednesday evening. Unique indeed was the manner in which the supper was served. It was a progressive affair beginning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoss, where the first course was served. The second followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joy G. Jameson, where the high school colors, crimson and gold, were used in the decorations. The third course was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jameson. The members of the association then went in autos to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scoville, where the fourth course awaited them. The fifth course was coved at Landau Cream. was served at Lemonia Grove, the country home of Mrs. W. H. Jameson. Keen wit permeated each toast. Fred Foster, '09, of Los Angeles wel-comed the graduation class of 1915; Donald Sias, '15, responded. "Ceme-teries and the Alumni" was the toast given by Herman Hoss.
